Kepitu Restaurant & Bar

Kepitu is the resort's signature dining destination. An open-air bamboo pavilion that looks out over rice terraces, tropical gardens, the hills of Karangasem, and on clear evenings, the distant ocean. It seats 100 guests across indoor and outdoor settings, and it changes entirely depending on when you arrive.

In the morning, Kepitu nourishes. The Karangasem Heritage Breakfast brings the flavours this land has always woken up to. Jaje Bali, Laklak, Bubur Injin, local honey, and the daily pass-around of freshly prepared Loloh, Bali's ancient herbal tonic, made table-side. This is not a breakfast buffet. It is a morning ritual.

By day, the kitchen turns to the culinary heritage of Karangasem. Traditional recipes, locally sourced produce, farm-to-table dishes rooted in centuries of cooking from this specific region of Bali.

As the sun descends over the Karangasem hills, the restaurant transforms into an elegant celebration of the day. Exceptional cuisine, warm Balinese hospitality, and on selected nights, cultural performances that belong to this land and no other.

Once a week, Kepitu hosts Night in Karangasem, an immersive cultural dining experience built around the Megibung tradition of communal dining. The menu features Sate Serapah, Nasi Sela, Pepes Ikan Marlin, Balinese storytelling, and live Rindik performance.

Cuisine: Contemporary Balinese and Indonesian

Capacity: 100 guests (40 indoor, 60 outdoor)

Breakfast: 07:00–11:00 · All-day dining: 11:00–23:00

Wanna Gangga

Wanna Gangga functions as a living cultural space first and a restaurant second: 631 square metres of open-air pavilion built around a multi-level infinity pool, sunken pool bar, whirlpool, cultural performance stage, and a sunset social hub that faces the full breadth of the Karangasem landscape.

In the morning, Wanna Gangga gathers: wellness breakfasts, healthy bowls, herbal Loloh tonics. In the afternoon, it becomes the House of Culture — Canang-making, Balinese painting, Egg painting, Rindik sessions, Balinese dance, and cultural workshops led by the people of Karangasem. In the evening, it celebrates Balinese entertainment, acoustic sessions, cultural storytelling, and community dining.

The food follows the same spirit: Balinese tapas inspired by traditional flavours, the Wellness Collection of herbal beverages reimagined for modern palates, and the Spirits of Bali Collection crafted into signature cocktails.

Cuisine: Balinese tapas, wellness cuisine, lifestyle dining

Capacity: 80 guests

Hours: 10:00–22:00

Serayu Spa

Karangasem is the regency of Mount Agung, Bali's highest and most sacred volcano, and of Tirta Gangga. Serayu Wellness, the luxury spa at The Kayon Gangga in East Bali, takes its philosophy directly from this ground: the Panca Maha Bhuta, or Five Sacred Elements, that still structure Balinese life today. Pertiwi (Earth), Apah (Water), Teja (Fire), Bayu (Air), and Akasa (Ether) shape every room, ritual, and material choice at Serayu Wellness, from the bamboo architecture overhead to the herbal pastes on the treatment table.

Prana Room — Bayu (Air):

Breathwork and sound healing, guided meditation and aromatherapy.

Dhara Room — Pertiwi (Earth):

Boreh healing therapy, clay detox ritual, warm stone therapy.

Tirta Room — Apah (Water):

Hydrotherapy and emotional release, warm water purification.

Teja Room — Teja (Fire):

Herbal steam rituals and fire-based therapies.

Akasa Room — Akasa (Ether):

Open-air yoga chapel above the rice terraces, singing bowl therapy and chakra balancing.
